

1500 FOR MISSIONARY CONVENTION GOAL SET BY EL PASO LAYMEN

Money From All Registrations From Today Forward Will Be Donated to Charity, Half to Rescue Home, Half to Associated Charities; Registration Open to All Men, Whether Churchmen or Not.

OVER eight hundred men have been registered as delegates to the Laymen's Missionary convention to be held here next week, opening Sunday afternoon in Trinity M. E. church, and the goal has now been set for 1500.

Committees are being appointed today to canvass the business section of the city for members. It is not necessary to be a church member to register for the convention. The lectures will all be instructive and educational and the committees in charge of the work feel that every man registering will get more than his dollar's worth.

Enough registrations have now been secured to pay all expenses of the convention, and all funds received from registrations from this date forward will be donated to charity, half to the Rescue Home and half to the Associated Charities. Thus all who register, not only have the privilege of becoming members of the convention, but they are contributing to charity at the same time.

These facts were brought out at a meeting of the executive committee of the convention, arrangements committee Monday evening and also at the weekly luncheon of the committee of 100 Tuesday noon at Hotel Sheldon. The committee has asked The Herald to receive registrations and anyone wishing to forward the dollar to this paper, will have it turned over to David McKnight, chairman of the registration committee, who will send a registration card.

The Registration Work.
David McKnight, chairman of the registration committee, announced that the registration up to noon Tuesday was 923. When it was stated that the membership of 18 men and an enrollment of 26 in the laymen's missionary movement, the fact was also the intelligence that the St. Clement's Episcopal church, with a men's enrollment of 98, showed a registration in the movement of 101. The luncheon in the Sheldon grill, and the last to be held before the week of the missionary convention, was transformed at the end into an extension committee as a whole to assist David McKnight in swelling the membership to the goal of 1500. Walks of business and professional life to assist Mr. McKnight.

Mission Worker Is Heard.
The chief speaker for the day was Rev. John K. Browne, assistant secretary of the American Board of Commissioners for Foreign Missions, of the Pacific coast district. He said that the world faced one of the greatest of all crises in history at the present time when the very life of nations is at stake and great transformations are taking place. He pointed out the bringing of all the men of the community together irrespective of creed, the keeping of them together after the convention, and said that the conference really stood for God's challenge to Christendom; second, God's challenge to the churches of America; third, God's challenge to each individual church; and fourth, God's challenge not simply to every Christian, but every man who loves his fellow man.

Permanent Organization.
The question of permanent organization of the committee that was possible the laymen's missionary movement was brought up by Rev. Miles Hanson, but that it would be better to discuss the issue after the missionary conference had ended.
G. P. Putnam spoke for R. F. Burgess, president of the El Paso Associated Charities, and thanked the laymen for deciding to give part of the surplus from the fund raised to carry on the conference to a permanent organization. G. A. Martin thanked the laymen in the name of the children at the Rescue Home for assistance to that organization.
The luncheon was well attended by some 80 men and upon all sides was expressed the conviction that the conference would be a success from beginning to end.

TODAY'S AMUSEMENTS

BILLIE BURKE AT GRECIAN.

Renold Wolf, in the New York Telegraph says: "In the not so particular of the writer, Billie Burke, if she were Billie any body else, would still be one of the most satisfying screen actresses. Being a picture producer, she is a picture field. In the art injected by Mr. Ince, 'Peggy' is exquisite. It represents the highest form of motion picture production. 'Peggy,' with Ince and Miss Burke working together in a genuine triumph. Miss Burke in a single picture has justified her stargazing."

"Peggy" with Billie Burke as the star, is a picture that cannot be overrated and it abounds in just little details that delight the eye and the heart. The play starts with a patch of sunlight. The sunlight patch falls on the floor of Peggy's dainty little bedroom, and starting as a mere speck, it grows larger and larger until it reaches its zenith, when the dainty little Peggy, herself, crawls out of bed, walks across the room, steps right up to the aforementioned spot of sunlight, and, sleepily, lazily, yawns! The whole of the play is just Billie Burke. A delightful story is told and there are other splendid artists in the production, but Billie is the center of the action.

Billie Burke in "Peggy" will be shown at the Grecian again today and for the last time tomorrow. Last night hundreds were waiting, so come to the matinee if you can. Shows start as follows: 12:45, 2:15, 2:45, 5:15, 6:45, 8:15, 9:45. Admission, adults 25c; children 15c.—Adv.

"SOULS IN BONDAGE"—UNIQUE.

Today begins an indefinite run at the Unique of Nance O'Neil in "Souls in Bondage," by Daniel Carson Goodman. This picture is one of the biggest dramatic offerings that has been put before the public and Miss O'Neil gives the best work that she has yet shown on the screen. From the very first to the final scenes, she gives a character development which not only appeals, but convinces in every scene, and throughout there is a feeling of power which compels. An excellent cast that has been exceptionally picked, gives Miss O'Neil wonderful support, and there is not a weak point in the production. The shows start at 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 1:15, 2:30, 3:45, 5, 6:15, 7:30, 8:45, and 10 p. m. The admission will be 25 cents and children's tickets will be sold. It will probably be still to arrange for the matinee if possible, as this picture will tax the seating capacity of the Unique. However, the management will try to hold the show as long as possible.—Advertisement.

DUSTY FARNUM.

True to the life of the Kentucky mountaineer in those days when his path was beset with the dangers that revolved around family feuds comes "The Call of the Cumberland," a Pal-las Pictures photoplay, to be seen at the Alhambra, today only, on the Paramount program.
The production presents Dustin Farnum, the popular screen star, in a role that suits him to the fullness of his talents. An Samson South, leader of the clan of Souths, Farnum carries one of sympathetic favor through the tale of feudal intricacies to the pinnacle of success as an artist and on to a true love and the end of a thrilling story.
Revenge, sympathy, devotion—love—all these elements of life run true to form in "The Call of the Cumberland," a photoplay in which artistic endeavor is held full sway in its making, both as to technical and histrionic effort.—Adv.

WIGWAM—ROMANCE OF EL PASO.

"A Romance of El Paso," the picture-pleasure production made by L. J. Burrud in El Paso and the vicinity, was shown yesterday at the Wigwam to big audiences and many were turned away at night. Outbursts of applause at all shows was evidence that the picture was pleasing. Even the old-timers found points of interest that they had never seen.
The picture is a big boost for El Paso and the southwest and will prove one of the biggest advertisements that the city has had when it is shown in other cities throughout the United States through the efforts of the El Paso commerce and the civic and fraternal organizations. Everyone should see his El Paso on the screen. It will be shown again today.
Wednesday the William Fox feature, "The Call of the Cumberland,"

A Real Flesh Builder For Thin People

This men and women—that big, hearty, filling dinner you ate last night. What became of all the fat-producing nourishment it contained? You haven't gained in weight one ounce. That food passed from your body like unburned coal through an open grate. The material was there, but your food doesn't work and stick, and the plain truth is you haven't got enough nourishment from your meals to pay for the cost of cooking. This is true of this folks the world over. Your nutritive organs, your functions of assimilation, are probably sadly out of gear and need reconstruction.

Cut out the Spanish foods and funny snazzy diets. Cut out everything but the main things you are eating and eat with every one of these a single Sargol tablet. In two weeks note the difference. Let the scales be the judge. Give to slight gain a pack of Sargol. "Stay-thin" fat may be the result. Sargol aims to charge weak, stagnant blood with millions of new red blood corpuscles—to give the blood the carrying power to deliver every ounce of fat-making material in your food to every part of your body. Sargol, too, mixes with your food, to prepare it for the blood in an easily assimilated form. Thin people tell they have gained all the way from 10 to 25 pounds a month while taking Sargol and say that the new flesh stays put. Sargol tablets are a careful combination of six of the best assimilable elements known to chemistry. They come 40 tablets to a pack, are pleasant, harmless and inexpensive, and J. A. E. Evans will tell you more about this vitality and then submit to an absolute guarantee of weight increase or money back as found in every large package.—Advertisement.

Attorneys for Railroads Decide Lines Cannot Accept Liquor For Arizona.

Phoenix, Ariz., Feb. 29.—Attorneys for the El Paso & Southwestern, Southern Pacific, Santa Fe, and Union Pacific railroads, met here today and decided that shipments of liquor to points in this state shall not be accepted.

The supreme court has held that liquor may be imported for personal use, but not for any other purpose. Attorneys for the carriers said their companies would have to prove that consignees of liquor shipments intended to use it for no unlawful purpose. Mere affidavits from consignees, stating their intentions, would be insufficient to clear carriers of the charges of violating the prohibition laws, they decided. It is expected some one will file a test case in court to compel acceptance of liquor shipments by carriers. The railroads themselves will take no steps to test the law, it is said.

Grand Opera Is Coming

What Ho! Get out my sabbath shirt, and put the buttons by. Get out my tallest collar, and my narrow white string tie. My braided sable breeches. My snowy satin waistcoat, with four buttons and two peaks.

What Ho! Procure a taxi-cab To shelter Angele, my friend. A shell-pink crepe de chine. Be-covered with a broadcloth wrap Of apricot tone. And get the florist instantly Upon, the telephone.

What Ho! Restrict the kitten to The garden for a change. Lock all the windows and the doors, and damp the kitchen range. For Angele and I are out—Oh, let the world be glad! We're going to the opera—It's Pavlowa—Petrossa.

JOY RIDERS GET INTO WATER; LEAVE AUTO LYING IN DITCH

An automobile was found lying in the ditch down the valley road near the five mile bridge Tuesday morning. It was said to have been taken out by John Hagar, a cabaret performer, Monday night, and that with him were three men and four girls. The driver, who is said to be from Mexico, missed the bridge at the five mile turn and went into the ditch instead. Beyond getting the least of water none of the party were hurt, it was said.

Julian Serrano, charged with assault upon policeman S. H. Veator with a prohibited weapon last spring, was tried before special judge W. D. Howe in the 34th district court Tuesday morning. He had awaited trial for nearly 11 months, during which as time he was confined in the county jail.

Health Authorities To Take Precautions Against More Cases Developing.

Another case of endemic, or sporadic typhus fever was discovered Monday afternoon in a tenement house on Tenth and Oregon street, where a Mexican was found to be recovering from the milder form of the disease. The Mexican was unable to tell where he had contracted the disease but according to the city health officers had had it about 10 days before he was found there. He is expected to recover as he has the disease in a mild form, according to the attending physician.

Kerosene Baths.

Dr. G. N. Thomas, county health officer, who with Dr. W. C. Klutts is in charge of the cases, has ordered every possible precaution taken. Kerosene and vinegar baths were ordered for all who had been exposed in the tenement house and in the neighborhood, their heads were clipped and shaved, their clothing destroyed and the house thoroughly disinfected. The physicians and health officers agree that there is no danger of the disease spreading from the endemic case and say the man will recover, the attack was such a mild one.

A meeting of the city and county health officers with mayor Tom Lea and the city council, was called for this afternoon to discuss the case. The city, county and federal health officers are cooperating in every way in handling the case.

Where Buffalo Once Roamed

"Cow Pasture Pool" Played

Roswell, N. M., Feb. 29.—Roswell will soon be playing golf over the grounds where the buffalo once roamed on the stacked plains. There are more than 50 Roswell golfers here and they have formed a tentative organization and are planning to lay out a grass course near the city.

To many of the old timers of Roswell, golf is an entirely new game and one that many in this section have never seen.

The players who have removed here from the east have brought their clubs with them and have interested others in it until it is expected to have 100 charter members of the club.

RELIEF HAS BEEN PERMANENT

Says Cardui Built Up System When Other Medicines Failed. Believes It Saved Her Life.

Hendersonville, N. C.—Mrs. M. A. Redmon, of R. F. D. 1, this place, writes: "I wish to state that before having taken Cardui, my condition of health was all run-down, and had been that way ever since my marriage two years ago last May. I only weighed 107 pounds. My average weight is 125 pounds. I had such awful pains at times I could hardly go. I had severe pains in my back and abdomen, and could scarcely do my work. I could not lift anything heavy.

In November 1912 I began taking Cardui. I thought I would give it a trial through my family doctor. I had set the date for an examination of me. I saw my improvement after taking the first bottle. I am getting fat and well, and in March this year I weighed 125 pounds. Your Cardui tonic built up my system when all other medicines failed. I feel and look like a different person. I am still, praising it to my friends. For I can truly say I believe it saved my life. My relief from all pain has been permanent."

If you are run-down in health and need a tonic, take Cardui, the woman's tonic. It will help you.
